

PRAYER

Keep us, O Lord, from pettiness: let us be large in thought, word and deed.
Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.
May we put away all pretence and meet each other face-to-face, without self-pity and without prejudice.
May we never be hasty in judgement and always be generous.
Let us take time for all things: make us grow calm, serene and gentle.
Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straight forward and unafraid.
Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences: that in the big things in life we are one.
And may we strive to touch and to know the great human heart common to us all, and Lord God, let us not forget to be kind.

An e-mail from a thankful family
"I cannot tell you how helpful this is to both of us. I have been staying in my husband's room all day, and sleeping at the hospital. I think I would have gone out of my mind without the internet. My sister is away in the US. Without the WiFi we would not be able to FaceTime each other and I don't have long distance out of Canada.

My husband is also able to FaceTime his sister in Ontario, and I , my dearest cousin on Ontario. JF."
